

instead of trying to silence satellite radio which is a paid service, perhaps the fcc should concentrate on cleaning up radio and tv stations that broadcast offense videos and language such as howard stern and janet jackson. the very broadcasters such as clear channel are the ones trying to stop satellite radio. one of the reasons I switched to satellite radio was to get away from dj's like howard stern!!